IMPORTANT: Winter mountain activities involve many risks, dangers and hazards. Participants are expected to arrive prepared with standard backcountry emergency supplies for winter, mountain travel (for gear list visit: ZacsTracs.com/backcountry-gear/). Participants must conduct themselves in a manner that promotes safety for participants, instructors, public and themselves or may be asked to leave the training activities. Riders are expected to ride sober and alert. Guardians are fully responsible for minors in their care. Avalanche training is an essential first step to backcountry travel but must be combined with ongoing learning and mentorship for effective risk management.
